This

is by a daughter of a murdered couple in Raytown , MO ,
who had a Bible and Bookstore on 63rd street .. She says:

When I had to testify at the murder trial of my parents a week ago, I was asked to raise my right hand... The bailiff started out "Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?"

I

stood there and waited but she said nothing. She said "Do you?"

I was so stunned I blurted out "What happened to
"so help me God'?"

She came back with "Do you?" I replied yes, but I was perplexed.

Then the judge said

. "You can say that if you want to."

I

stopped, raised my right hand, and finished with
"So
help me God!"

I
told my son and daughter that when it came time for them to testify, they should do the same.

I don't know what can be done about it, but it's time for us to step up and DO something.

NBC this morning had a poll on this question.. They had the highest number of responses that they have ever had for one of their polls, and the percentage was the same as this: 86%to keep the words, 14% against...
That is a pretty 'commanding' public response.

I was asked to send this on if I agreed...or delete if I didn't.

Now it is your turn. It is said that 86%
of Americans believe in God.

Therefore,
I have a very hard time understanding why there is such a mess
about having "In God We Trust" on our money and having God in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Why is America -- our nation
-- catering to this 14%? If you agree, pass this on,

if not, simply delete.... In
